

Hazen's Securities Regulation Cases and Materials includes the most up to date developments both in the courts and with respect to SEC rulemaking. For example, the Seventh Edition includes 1933 Act offering reform. The Seventh Edition is organized to enable instructors to easily omit or rearrange material. The problem and documentary supplement is available as a companion to the casebook. The problems are designed for teachers using the problem method. It also contains sample documents including a 1933 Act registration and back-up documents. The Seventh Edition is accompanied by an expanded teacher's manual. The teacher's manual includes analysis of the problems contained in the problem and documentary supplement.
