

This is not a marriage handbook, but rather an explanation of the nature of Christian marriage at a time when it seems under severe threat.

Unfortunately, there is one subject that far too many adults stop learning about: the person they married. During the dating period, most couples engage in an.

Men and women are equal, but they are the same. God created men and women to be different, and one key to a great marriage is to work with His design.

Many of us have grown up dreaming of the wonderful feelings of romantic love and wait expectantly to fall in love. Movies and love songs have a way of stirring. What makes the numbers even more disturbing is that no one seems to understand why our marriages have become so fragile. In pursuit of the.
