

Alma is 17, is smart, pretty, charismatic and decisive. Admired by her classmates, but viewed with some reluctance (though respected) by others, her life revolves around her three best friends: Naomi, Seline and Agatha. Like any girl her age, is attracted to a fellow at her high school, Morgan, a handsome, mysterious boy who seems to pay attention, but never too much emphasis on going out with her. Throughout this seemingly normal teen, Alma hides a secret. She writes terrible and violent events in her purple notebook that few days later turn into reality. As she writes stories that turn out to real crimes, Alma was more afraid and finally decides to call the police, who reveals that the perpetrators of these brutal crimes are teenagers. Who are they? Do they belong to some strange cult? Does anyone reading her book?
