

Small kids are often excluded from faster rides at Disneyland and people need to know where they can go to have fun with small kids in the park. Additionally, Disneyland can be exhausting and overwhelming for parents and older folks, and they, too, need a guide for fun with more relaxation at the park. This guide was written with these groups in mind. The author grew up in Southern CA and has been to Disneyland as a child, teen, and then as a parent and older person. All of the suggestions in the book are based on personal experience. Need to find a shady place for you and your kids to relax yet still be entertained? Want to find a quick healthy snack or a bathroom with shorter lines? What happens when kids get lost? Can I rent a stroller on site? What about our family dog on vacation with us? Are there lockers inside the park? Where can I get a personalized kids parasol while sipping a non-alcoholic mint julep and eating a Mickey-shaped Beignet? Is there somewhere to get breakfast inside the park? All of these questions, and more, are answered in this book. (This book is in no way associated with Disneyland or the Disney Company. It is an unofficial guide written by a fan and parent.)
